

Research Regs

All Non-human vertebrates for any experiment that might cause pain, suffering or lasting harm
Mammals, birds, reptiles, amphibians, and common octopus

ANIMAL (SCIENTIFIC PROCEDURES) ACT 1986

4 million animals, 4 million scientific procedures, mice 77%

Cannot Authorise :
Using or keeping embryos after primitive streak (Chance of twinning)
Replacing nucleus of Embryo with another nucleus
ES Cell Isolation Not allowed

Donaldson Report 2000 -
IFV and SCNT for research should be legal,
No other means of research,
no scnt into womans uterus

HUMAN FERTILISATION AND EMBRYOLOGY (RESEARCH PURPOSES) REGS 2001

Donaldson Report 2000

HUMAN FERTILISATION AND EMBRYOLOGY ACT 1990

First Test Tube Baby - 1978, Warnock Commission 1984

License for:
In vitro Fertilisation
Keeping or using Embryos for:
Advances in fertility
Congenital Disease
Miscarriage
Contraception
Presence of Gene or chromosomal abnormalities
Other purposes as may be specified by Secretary of State

HUMAN TISSUE ACT, 2004

Removal, storage, use and disposal of relevant material

